

Income of Non-Resident Spouse or Common-Law Partner for the Canada child benefits

Find out if this form is for you

Fill out this form every year if both of the following situations apply:

- You are receiving the Canada child benefit.
- Your spouse or common-law partner was a non-resident of Canada for all or part of the year.

Generally, your spouse or common-law partner is considered to have been a non-resident of Canada in a given year if they normally lived in another country and were not considered a resident of Canada for tax purposes. For more information, go to canada.ca/cra-determining-residency-status or see Guide T4058, Non-Residents and Income Tax.

Fill out this form even if your spouse or common-law partner had no income.
